

Ypsilanti High School

Class of 1955

Dedication

Miss Iseminger

Mr. Sinden

Miss Crothers

Mr. Waterman

Mr. Lee

We, the Class of 1955, proudly dedicate this book to our homeroom teachers. You have helped make our final year of high school a very happy one, and we will always cherish the memories of what you have done for the class. You have given us assistance with our many activities and guidance in our many problems. To all of you -- Miss Crothers, Miss Iseminger, Mr. Lee, Mr. Sinden, and Mr. Waterman -- we say, "Thank you for everything."

Valedictorian

MERRITH LAMSON

ELAINE COLEMAN

Elaine Coleman and Merrith Lamson are the class valedictorians. These girls have a 4 point average for their four years of high school. The class salutatorian is Carolyn Exelby. Her average for the four years is 3.96. In addition to maintaining such high academic standing, these girls have been very active in all class and school activities. Theirs is an enviable record and the Class of 1955 is very proud of them and the honors they have gained.

Class Poem

FAREWELL OF FIFTY-FIVE

Beth Viergever

The hours we've spent together,
The fun, the laughter, the tears,
In later life we will recall
As four sweet, wonderful years.

Our class shone bright in every field
Of intelligence, sports, and speech;
We're proud of our many accomplishments
And hope that our future goals we'll reach.

We've yet long lives ahead of us;
We've records to break and set;
Seeking perfection in every way
Until each challenge is met.

With heads held high, with courage rare,
We face this big, wide world,
To meet our problems everywhere
Our streaming banners e'er unfurled.

We'll miss this dear old high school,
Our friends and teachers, too,
But the knowledge we've gained from knowing them
Will last our whole lives through.

With lasting mem'ries in our hearts
Yet an eager gaze ahead,
The class of 'fifty-five departs
Well-learned, well-taught, well-led.

CLASS HISTORY

Patricia Keegan

History is indestructible. It is made and cherished. It is an important part of our lives. History had a beginning and so did the Class of 1955. We have been active in numerous clubs and organizations in our school, winning all of the honors offered to us but, at the same time, we have maintained the most important function of school, acquiring an education. Out of the portals of Ypsilanti High this year will step over 190 seniors, the largest class to graduate from our high school. It would be impossible to trace each individual history, but we will try to cover the major points of history for the Class of 1955.

The class got off to a fine start when, in 1951, our ninth year, we elected Dan Odegard, Bob Noll, Clara Shaw, and Audrey Randall as class officers and had as our adviser, Miss Neville. We broadened our interests by joining many clubs. This first year two new clubs, Girls' Swimming and Future Teachers, were organized and charter members found their way into our class. Twenty-one of our girls were chosen to become members of the Girls' Drum & Bugle Corps, the largest number ever to be admitted to that organization. Thirteen boys made outstanding performances in the Marching Band. Eight boys won varsity letters in sports competition. And so the class of 1955 was on its way.

We started our Sophomore year in September, 1952, and elected as officers Bob Noll, John Martin, Clara Shaw, and Nancy Wilde. Miss Crothers was our adviser. We were given a reception so that we could officially be admitted into the Senior division. Marcia Damoose starred in forensic work by winning the Regional Forensic Contest in oratorical declamations. We were proud of the splendid records our boys were making in sports. This year nineteen boys received varsity letters. Nancy Wilde was elected to the high post of treasurer of the Student Council. Terry Montonye and Maxe Obermeyer were chosen to attend Wolverine Boys' State. Two of our class were initiated into the National Thespian Society. And so we turn another page in the history of our great class.

When our Junior year arrived, we began to realize that our high school days were hurrying by and our sponsor, Mr. Halbert, did much to make the year enjoyable. Betty Kelly, Viola Pitts, Merrith Lamson, Thomasia Manikas, and Patricia Keegan participated in the mock UN Assembly at Hillsdale. Maxe Obermeyer was editor of the "Sem." Paul Kirk and Philip Reid attended Wolverine Boys' State while Joyce Henry and Clara Shaw represented our school at Wolverine Girls' State. The work of the junior year was handled by Warren Huff, Dan Odegard, Lois Wendt, and Beverly Abbeg, our class officers. Marcia Damoose and Maxe Obermeyer had leading roles in the all-school play, "Stag Line." The boys of our class won 44 varsity letters this year, and the following were elected to captaincy of the different sports for the coming year--Larry Hinkley and Prince Freeman, football; Guy Wynn, cross country; Jesse Boyd and Levi Simpson, track; Dan Odegard, wrestling and golf; Dave Holley, swimming; Tom Kosky, basketball. We showed great literary talent when we swept the literary contests. Patricia Keegan placed second in the district original oratorical contest and was a state winner in the Knights of Pythias Oratorical contest. Marcia Damoose won the district and placed second in the regional Dramatic Reading contest. Fourteen of us became members of the National Honor Society in our Junior year. Quill & Scroll selected four members from our class. The National Thespian Society added many new members from our class. Nancy Wilde was again elected as treasurer of the Student Council and Beverly Abbeg was elected secretary. The greatest moment of the year was the honor assembly when we were presented the Board of Education Cup as the outstanding class of the year with a total of 56 points.

On September 8, 1954, we--the great Class of 1955--began our Senior year! The previous three years records we had made seemed like mere formalities to the episode which was to unfold during the 1954-55 school year. We had Mr. Paul Ritchie as our adviser and during our year of reign we learned what a remarkable person he was as he proved his capabilities in so many ways. We had many class meetings this year conducted by Bob Noll, and he was assisted by Jack Brown, Lois Wendt, and Merrith Lamson, the other officers. Gerald Lundy and Terry Montonye were co-editors of the "Sem," while Ann Kisor edited the yearbook. We were fortunate to have such capable people as Carolyn Exelby heading the Drum & Bugle Corps and Phil Reid, the Boys' Marching Band. Marcia Damoose was the recipient of the DAR award. Phil Reid and Patricia Keegan attended the mock UN Assembly. The A cappella choir and double octette had many seniors in them. Fifty-two boys won varsity letters and five of these boys helped to earn second place in the state wrestling meet. Dan Odegard, Richard Bow, and Alwyn Collins placed second in their weight. Forensic Key winners were Sue Baird, Marcia Damoose, Lois Wendt, Ann Kisor, Maxe Obermeyer, Patricia Keegan, and Joyce Henry. Our senior play, "Sabrina Fair," was a smash hit. The play was given under the wonderful direction of Miss Madge Iseminger. Maxe Obermeyer was a state winner in the Knights of Pythias contest and Patricia Keegan placed second in the Zone American Legion Oratorical contest. The academic standing of the class at the end of their high school career found 48 students with an average of B or above. Fifteen new members were chosen for the National Honor Society and Quill & Scroll also initiated many new members from the class. The senior year also found 35 members of the class in the National Thespian Society.

I am proud and deeply grateful that I am a member of this outstanding class which has won for itself distinction and respect, and whose history will live. As we look back on all the events in the past years, we realize that graduation will soon be over. This is only the first chapter in the history of our class; for now we will apply our knowledge to achieve greater honors and to attain higher goals, for we--the Class of 1955--are stepping out into the world!

PROPHECY

Thomasia Manikas

One night a very strange thing happened to me. It was one of those rare nights when I was home--home with nothing to do. I finally decided to turn on the TV and this is what I heard and saw. "Hello out there. This is Schnoodle Edwards bringing to you the award winning program 'This Will Be Your Life,' brought to you by Pfeiffer's--Joe Pfeiffer, the yogurt man." I know you are just dying to know whose future will be unfolded tonight, so brace yourselves, because this will be your life, the great Class of 1955. Yes, you will now know what will happen to you twenty-five years hence. The year is 1980.

Tonight this program is being televised from that huge metropolis called Saline, with the permission of the mayor, RICHARD OTTO, and councilmen LEO SANCHO, CHARLES WHITAKER, and BILL PELKY. We are in the gigantic auditorium built by the famed architects ALVIN MOORE and MIKE PHILBIN with CHARLES JOHNSON as the mechanical engineer and LEON TAYLOR as the draftsman. The assisting staff was JOE MEZO, RONALD FICK, and KEITH DUNLAP.

Over on the right is BILL GRETZINGER, our cameraman with LEIGH WYNN as his assistant. This show almost didn't get on the air because RALPH FOWLER, the floor manager, became tangled in the cables. Luckily, CORA TURNER and MINNIE MOSS were on hand to untangle him. In the left balcony are the Maharajay of Kookamonga, JOHN MARTIN, with his harem of beautiful young females. Sitting in front of him are two great gentlemen who just returned from India. They are the famous snake-charmer DICK WILDMAN and HAROLD HINES who have just completed another book entitled You, Too, May Raise Tse Tse Flies!

Seated in the lower balcony are some celebrities from the medical world. They are the distinguished Dr. DAVID HARRIS, famed dietician, with his head nurses SHIRLEY STINEDURF and ROSIE NEWTON. Seated with Dr. Harris is the head of the Medical Association, GERALD LUNDY. His gold Cadillac is parked outside guarded by his chauffeur, JESSE BOYD. In the same section are BEVERLY ABBEG, COLLEEN HAMEL, ANGELINE BYRD, LOIS TURCHI, DONNA TOTARO, and MAGEL MASSEY who have invented a new hospital game called "Who has the millionaire?"

Information in front of the auditorium lists the light-footed ballet dancers SILAS GOAD and WALTON GRAF. They appeared in Carnegie Hall preceding the golden-throated vocalists MARY SIMPSON, DOROTHY RUTLEDGE, and CECILIA ROOF. Another vocal group that appeared was the Four Hits and a Mess, who were HORACE BARNARD, HARLEY POWELL, JOYN FORSYTH, BILL SIMPSON, and DAVID NOVAK. Also appearing in Carnegie Hall was CLARA SHAW. She is a candelabra lighter for Liberace. Sitting by the ventilating system is the prize winner of the Hog-calling Contest, WARREN HUFF. It seems whenever Warren stretched his vocal cords all the hogs from PHILIP SYLER'S farm went stark raving mad.

On the right side of the auditorium are the co-editors of the Mud Flat Journal, EUGENE KLINE and TERRY MONTONYE. With them is seated HELEN FAST, their gossip columnist. They are here getting news of the wealthy LORRAINE and WILLIAM WILBUR, who have a fleet of shrimp boats.

In back of the Wilburs are ANITA ALLISON, LOIS WENDT, ELAINE COLEMAN, LUCILLE BROWN, ANN WHITE, NANCY LYSTRUP, and BETTY JORDAN who are test drivers for a hot rod enterprise owned and operated by multi-millionaire ANN KISOR. JOE ALBAN, SHIRLEY HARRINGTON, LARRY DEMMONS, and BETTY KELLY are trained mechanics who keep them, the cars, in running condition. Miss Kisor calls all of her cars "Flattery," because they get you nowhere.

Standing in the rear of the auditorium is GEORGE MILLS, the world-renowned artist whose paintings have been compared with Rembrandt--Herman Rembrandt, from George's art class. Standing by George is HENRY MAYFIELD who owns a chain of clothing stores for midgets. Ah, some things never change. Seated on the west side of the auditorium are LARRY HINKLEY and JOYCE BARROWS, still holding hands.

Some of our old classmates have just returned from a long journey. PRINCE FREEMAN, an X-ray technician, FRED HAMM, a butcher, the Reverends JAMES RUSSELL and LARRY LATHERS, and RICHARD FALANDYSZ, a policeman, are just back from a trip to Mars. Sergeant Falandysz was on hand with DAVID HOLLEY and policewomen VIOLENE POWELL and BETTIE PAMS to keep an eye on Rev. Russell and Rev. Lathers. The rocketship used for the trip was designed and constructed by JOHN JONES, SYLVESTER COLEMAN, CARL BERCH, MYRA MOORE BARBARA GREEN, and SHIRLEY WILSON. Also on the trip were BOB NOLL and BERNARD HUTTING who wanted to sell real estate up there. The spaceline hostess was PAT HICKMAN.

Over on the right I see a very prominent lawyer in a high silk hat. He is BILL HORTON. Following him around is his very efficient secretary, VIOLA PITTS. Viola is able to take down 300 words a minute. JEAN LAMOREAUX, DELORES THORPE, VIRGINIA BREWER, and ADEL WOOLFOLK keep Viola well supplied with pencils. They specialize in pencils three feet long.

Scattered around the auditorium I see some people from a visiting carnival. They are such illustrious characters as JUDY MILLER, the fat lady; JERRY ALLISON, the box-office barker; HOMER TURNER, the thin man; GLENDA SANDERS, the human pin-cushion; and JAMES SANDERSON, the fire-eater. Featured in the carnival is a two-minute wrestling match between the Wild Woman from Borneo, JUNE SCHELL, against the Wooly Woman from Willis, MARY (killer) DOLPH. Their managers are RICHARD McKENNA and JAY BAKER. DAVID LaROE is the referee.

In our midst we also have the daring adventurer JACK BROWN, who is still looking for the white-tail gully gulper and yaller-bellied sap-suckers, and PHIL REID, who has been hunting rhinoceros in the Irish Hills. NANCY WILDE, tempestuous as ever, is their assistant. With them is the famed scientist TOM KOSKY, who is still combating the ever popular bean beetle. Assisting Dr. Kosky are PAUL KIRK, a bean-beetle bottler, and DAVID SLOUGH, who puts the beetles to death by strangling them.

Seated in the rear of the auditorium are two pogo-stick kings of the underworld, GARY KAY and JOE LESNIEWICZ. Next to Big Joe and Little Gary are the millionaires RUTH BUTLER, STELLA BETZ, NANCY GRANNIS, ALICE BAUER, BARBARA GIBSON, and BARBARA COE. These girls own a chain of combination gas stations and restaurants. Their motto is "Eat here and get gas!"

We have seven home economists with us. They are JO HUNTINGTON, KATHERINE BRAZIL, CAROL ANDREE, MARY JO BROOKS, CLARICE CASEY, JOHNNIE CHARLES, and MARY HUTCHINSON. They invented a vitamin tonic called "Mother Fletcher's Cure-all." It removes warts, grows hair on your chest, kills rats, cleans woodwork, and has dozens of other uses. Seated in the right balcony are two inventors. They are BOB SCHAFFER and JACK WASHBURN, who have invented a car with only two wheels, designed for turning corners. It seems they have found the other two useless.

In the east wing are ROBERT WRIGHT, EDMUND WOODRUFF, JAMES CHAVEZ, EUGENE GRAY, and ALWYN COLLINS. These men now own and operate a cash and carry chain of dime stores in Siberia. With every dollar purchase they give a 500 pound cake of ice free. Their business manager is AARON HATCH with EDWARD WRIGHT and RICHARD BOW as ice-cutters.

Seated near these businessmen is the manager of the Stained Socks Girls' Softball team, ROBERT TREMLIN. His star pitcher is ERMA JORDAN and SALLY MAYO is the star shortstop WILLIE TOOSON plays in the outfield. These, no doubt, will be candidates for the Hall of Fame. The umpire is DAVID TOWLER. This team is owned by DONNA RATLIFF, JOY RIGGS, and ANNABELLE JOHNSON. HOWARD JOHNSON was the original owner but he now is living on his plantation, taking life easy.

In the center of the auditorium are the fabulous Oscar winners, MARCIA DAMOOSE and MAXE OBERMEYER. They were in the award winning production, "The Return of Rin Tin Tin," with Maxe in the starring role? This picture was produced and directed by BRANTLEY CHAUNCEY, LEVI SIMPSON, and WILLIE COLEMAN. Comment arose on the unique hair styles in the movie created by GEORGIA COFIELD, GERALDINE HAYWOOD, EVA JONES, and PHYLLIS JOHNSON. Their instructor was EMMA HOLMAN. Miss Damoose was to be guest panelist on the quiz show "I've Got a Question," but she didn't show up in time for the show. Someone saw her walking along the street with a bucket asking passers-by if they had seen a brown cow that gives chocolate milk.

Speaking about cows, I see the rich dairyman NORMAN SCHNEIDER with his assistants, GEORGE WILSON and DOUGLAS SMITH. JACQUELYN WOODS is part owner of Norman's farm.

Seated with the men is the rich and prominent CHARLES SAYRE, who has just bought another yacht. He certainly is living it up since he married a rich widow. We have some people here from the rodeo. JOANNE BLANCHARD, DIANA BENNS, JOYCE SWIFT, and RUTH SAYAN are trick riders. Wild JAN DYER, IDA MOORE, LAFERN RITCHIE, and BONNIE VAUGHT are the daring bronco busters, and VALORIE SHELTON, PEGGY MAHONEY, AUDREY RANDALL, and PATRICIA ZUREK are known throughout the West as wild steer ropers without the rope, and those kind can't hardly be got any more.

Now I see the very famous swimmer CAROLYN EXELBY who swam the English Channel using four different strokes at once. SUE BAIRD, MARLENE GABLE, JANICE FARQUHARSON, and MARY JO HAYES fished Carolyn out of the Channel. The poles they used were through the courtesy of CHARLES MANN. Seated with them are the owners of the "U Wet--We Dry" diaper service, BEVERLY EISENHART, VIOLET HARRIS, BEATRICE HAVENS, JOANNE TERRY, DERITA DULIN, JUNE TURNER, and BETH VIERGEVER. The driver of the truck is RAYBURN PRICE.

Seated in the center balcony is GUY WYNN, the shrewd businessman, who has a chain of taxi-cabs for midgets. He is here with his drivers, JOSEPHINE BROWN, AUDREY OEHMKE, and YVONNE PERRY. Mr. Wynn's secretary, KATHLEEN TERRALL, couldn't be here tonight because she was run over by a taxi-cab. She escaped with minor injuries. Next to this party, making quite a commotion, are the two famed debators, JOYCE HENRY and PATRICIA KEEGAN. They collaborated on a book called, You, Too, Can Have Teeth Like Liberace.

Coming into the auditorium is the famous dance artist, MERRITH LAMSON. She is here with Sophie Tucker's protege, NANCY "Bubbles" MITCHELL. Sitting next to Miss Mitchell is JOHN HARRIS, a wart remover in a pickle factory owned and operated by DAN ODEGARD.

Last of all I see the former MARGARET WILBUR, who is married to a rich oil man from Bayong.

Now you, the Senior Class of YHS, can look forward to the future. For this will be your life--Class of 1955. Overcoming astonishment, I turned off the set and gave it to the junk dealer.

 ANITA ALLISON and LUCILLE BROWN--megaphones. We haven't heard much from you two.
 STELLA BETZ, JOANNE BLANCHARD, MARY JO BROOKS, and RUTH BUTLER--red paint. Now you girls can really paint the town red.
 WARREN HUFF--a pig. This will help stock "Huff's Happy Hog Haven."
 RICHARD BOW--arrow. This is to go along with the "Bow."
 VIOLA PITTS, ROSIE NEWTON, GEORGIA COFIELD, SHIRLEY WILSON, and WILLIE TOOSON--scissors. Now you'll be able to cut up when you get out of school.
 PATRICIA HICKMAN--Ry Krisp. This will help keep that school girl figure.
 CAROL ANDREE--shorthand note book. You can fill this with your good deeds.
 DAVID SLOUGH--toy horn. Try this on your car instead of that bell.
 HORACE BARNARD--egg. One good egg deserves another.
 CARL BERCH--pine tree. You've been a "Berch" too long.
 MARGARET WILBUR, RUTH SAYAN, and ANNABELLE JOHNSON--hammer. Break out of your shell and let us know you are around.
 CLARA SHAW--candelabra. Since all good piano players use these we thought you should have one too.
 NANCY MITCHELL--toy horse. This is to go with the one you already have.
 FRED HAMM--pork chop. You've been a "Hamm" too long.
 GERALD LUNDY and GEORGE MILLS--paints. This will further the work of the class artists.
 PEGGY MAHONEY and ANN WHITE--drum sticks. These will remind you of your days in the Drum & Bugle Corps.
 CAROLYN EXELBY--Certificate. The State of Maryland grants you honorary membership. We may now call you "Caroline."
 EVA JONES--blue excuse. This is a remembrance of your school days.
 VIOLENE POWELL, IDA MOORE, and JOSEPHINE BROWN--nurses caps. Maybe these will help you make the grade in nursing school.
 GEORGE WILSON--trophy. For your supreme achievement, we present this trophy.
 BRANTLEY CHAUNCEY--dictionary. We thought you might be tired of reading encyclopedias. Try this for a while.
 ALVIN MOORE--scapel. This will help you start on your career as a doctor.
 WILLIAM PELKY and HARLEY POWELL--tennis racket. We hope these will get you into a good racket after graduation.
 PHILIP REID--alarm clock. This will assure prompt arrival for all future dates.
 CORA TURNER, ADEL WOOLFOLK, and GERALDINE HAYWOOD--four-leaf clovers. We want to wish you the best of luck.
 LEO SANCHO and EDMUND WOODRUFF--scrolls. You can record your high school memories on these.
 HELEN FAST--maid's cap. This is a reminder of your performance in the Senior Play.
 JOHN HARRIS--sombbrero. This is to go with your name of "Pedro."
 JOYCE BARROWS and LARRY HINKLEY--handcuffs. Now you two won't have to be separated.
 MARLENE GABLE--a rainbow. I hope you find your pot of gold.
 TOM KOSKY--a ball. This is for our class "screwball."
 MR. RITCHIE--a very sincere "Thank you" for all the advice and help you have given us during our Senior year.

CLASS WILL

Maxe Obermeyer

We, the members of the Class of 1955, of Ypsilanti High School, located in the City of Ypsilanti, County of Washtenaw, State of Michigan, being in our insane minds and crippled conditions, after having passed through (at least) four years of high school, do ordain and establish this, our last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all previous wills and codicils by us heretofore made.

To the Juniors, we leave the honors, pleasures, and advantages that go with being a Senior in such a praiseworthy institution of profound knowledge and higher education. We furthermore bequeath to the Class of '56 our best wishes and sincere hope that they, in time, will come to admire, appreciate, and uphold the glorious traditions which have been created and maintained by the Seniors of days gone by, who have passed through these sacred halls. We also leave to the Juniors our beloved seats in the assembly, where all can keep close watch on them.

To the Sophomores, we leave our brilliant records of scholastic and athletic achievements which we hope will inspire all future underclassmen to attain even greater goals of merit. We also leave to the Class of '57 the hope that in a short two years, when they sit upon this stage, that they will feel as proud of their accomplishments as we do. We furthermore bequeath to the Sophomores the responsibility of protecting and setting a good example for the less experienced Ninth Graders.

To the Ninth Grade, we leave our sparkling personalities, excellent dispositions, and our undying Spirit, which to Seniors immemorial will be an example of co-operation and happiness. We also leave to the Class of '58 three more years to become better acquainted with the faculty and to establish their record as another outstanding graduating class of YHS.

To all underclassmen, we direct all of our indebtedness to society, arising out of a disregard for rules and regulations, bad manners, and numerous pranks and devilments, the punishments for which have never been fully satisfied, to be paid as soon after graduation as possible. We also give to underclassmen all our thoughts, wishes, ambitions, desires, and memories to be distributed and used by all.

To the Faculty and Administration we leave our undying gratitude and sincere appreciation for their time, talent, energy, and patience in providing for us the finest education possible.

To Mr. Ritchie, our class adviser and friend to all, we leave the peace of mind, pride, and satisfaction which is justly his after having successfully brought us through this, our most happy and memorable year. We say of Mr. Ritchie, "You just can't hardly get that kind no more."

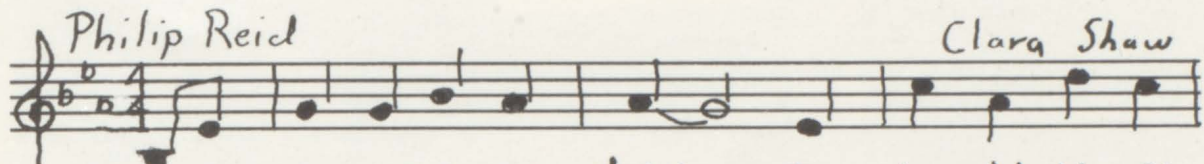

To our Parents, whom we can never fully repay, we leave an immensity of gratitude for all the things they have done to help us through these past years. We say from the bottom of our hearts, to the most wonderful people in the world, "THANK YOU."

We do hereby appoint Mr. Norris G. Wiltse, Mr. Alvin Joslyn, Mr. Wilfred Sinden, and Mr. Paul Ritchie as the administrators of this, our last will and testament. We furthermore empower them with right to enforce all wishes, mandates, thoughts, memories, and desires hereinfore set forth.

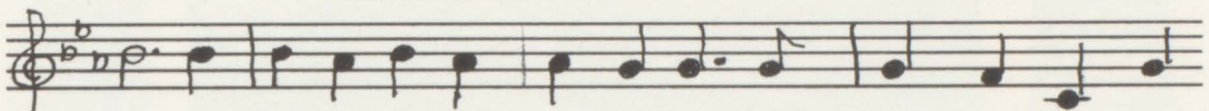

In witness whereof, we have executed this instrument as, and for, our last will and testament on this 10th day of June, 1955.

Class Song

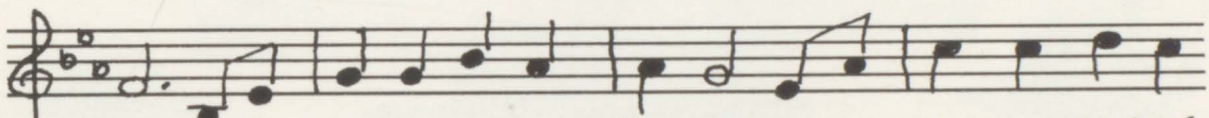

Philip Reid Clara Shaw

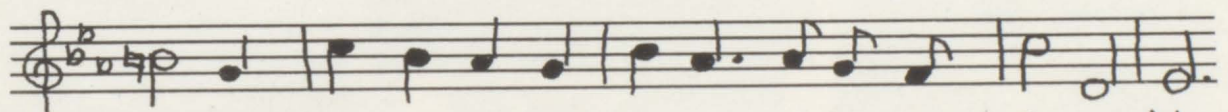

Now that we must say a - dieu to dear old Yp-Si
Through the morn-ing years of life we must now try to

High, to teach-ers and the friends we made we hate to say good-pass, Some of us will take the low road and oth-ers take the bye. But we can-not, must not lin-ger up - on this road of high. It's thank-a-gain for ev - ry-thing dear friends of Yp-Si life, For grad-u - a - tions here now, and we must say good-bye

High, Fare-well to our class mates true, Fare-well to all of you.
